

Dance, Raffle Saturday To Cap Fund Drive For Youth Center

The fund-raising campaign of the Youth Center will come to a gala climax with a dance at the community building auditorium Saturday night. During the dance, the brand-new Oldsmobile sedan, a television set, a matched set of luggage, and many other "surprise" prizes will be raffled off to the holders of the lucky tickets. Youth Center members, the advisory board, and a group of prominent public-spirited citizens have been active in the past several months in a campaign to sell raffle tickets for the purpose of raising money to improve the Youth Center facilities.

The campaign has been endorsed by leading citizens in the community. In a statement to The Cooperator, City Manager Charles T. McDonald said:

In the two years that I have been manager at Greenbelt I have been extremely well pleased with the fine piece of work that is being done at the Youth Center. I have watched the group grow from a "corporal's guard" to an excellent representative youth group. Not only has the Drop-Inn given the energetic and conforming youth an opportunity to meet and fraternize with their friends and neighbors, but it also gave the directors and leaders an opportunity to counsel with the mischievous and obstreperous youths. With the record of these accomplishments before me, I congratulate the Drop-Inn on their achievements and urge the assistance of all Greenbelters in this fund-raising campaign.

Tomorrow night teen-agers will canvass the entire town in a door-to-door campaign to sell raffle tickets. Their purpose will be to sell one more 25c ticket to every resident in Greenbelt. Although aware that nearly everyone in town has already purchased tickets, the group desires the additional purchase to assure success of the affair.

In the past week, ticket sellers have displayed the car in Silver Spring near the Hecht Company and sold many raffle tickets. A table will be set up in the GCS Food Store this Saturday afternoon for the convenience of weekend shoppers, as in the past. Tickets may also be secured at the police station.

Morgan Baer will supply the music for the dance on Saturday night, and arrangements are being made to have well-known radio and television personalities appear during the evening. The local majorettes' group will perform during the intermission.

On Friday and Saturday, a sound truck will circle the town reminding residents of the dance and raffle.

High School Bulging With Record Classes

Enrollment at Greenbelt High School has now reached the record figure of 964 students. Even with the additional structure erected in the back of the high school, the walls of the school are being strained to their utmost with the capacity enrollment this year.

School officials are hoping that the enrollment will not exceed 1000, as it will be practically impossible to take care of more than that amount. With the situation as it is, a larger high school, or a new school to take over some of the students, seems to be the answer to the problem.

First - Graders Start Full Day Monday Oct. 2

All first-grade students at the Center and North End Schools will attend school both mornings and afternoons beginning Monday, October 2. The cafeteria in the Center School will also open on October 2. The price of meals will be 25 cents as in the past.

The North End School has increased its enrollment with the transfer of 50 children from the Riverdale School. This action has been necessitated by overcrowding in the Riverdale School and the fact that the North End School can handle these additional students without any inconvenience. The children are being transported daily by bus to the North End school.

GCS Employees Enjoy Speaker, Smorgasbord

The annual party for GCS employees given Sunday night by the Board of Directors at the American Legion Home started off with a lavish spread served in Smorgasbord style. Assisting with the preparation of food were Mrs. George Davidsen, Mrs. Paul Kasko, Mrs. Walter Bierwagen and Mrs. Jessie Walter. George Davidsen supervised the menu, and board members helped with serving.

Hans Thunell, visiting this country from Sweden, addressed the group and stressed the importance of "international understanding as a basis for cooperation."

Jack Thompson, master of ceremonies, introduced "Miss TV of Baltimore" who sang several numbers. Miss Rhonda Bibler performed a baton specialty dance. Also performing were Paula Bibler and members of the Tempo School of Dance in two tap-dance numbers. There was dancing for the remainder of the evening. Henry Walter, party chairman, can be credited with captaining a successful evening of fun.

Free Violin Classes Offered Saturday

Greenbelt children who are interested in free violin lessons are invited to attend a meeting on Saturday, September 30, at 10 a.m. in the Center school, according to David Burchuk, instructor and conductor of the Greenbelt Youth Orchestra.

Parents of the children are urged to be present, with a special invitation extended to children in grades 4, 5 and 6 to enter this beginners' class. There is neither an instruction fee nor dues, but children must supply their own instruments.

Registration for the advanced class (pupils who played with the group last year) and for a cello class will also be held at this time. Anyone interested is invited to attend.

WALTONIANS PLAN SOCIALS AND FISHING TRIPS

Plans have been discussed for a series of socials and fishing trips during the next few months by the officers of the local Izaak Walton League. First in the series was a suggestion by C. J. Van Camp for a weekend fishing trip to South River. Van had been there recently with a few of the members and was rather successful catching fish. The idea was unanimously accepted. The outing has been scheduled for the third weekend in October. Discussion brought out the fact that the affair will be conducted at no cost whatever to the members, with the possible exception of a pooling of funds for gasoline to make the trip.

The next item discussed was the State Meeting at Silver Spring, when all Maryland Chapters are invited guests of the Maryland Division of the Izaak Walton League. Refreshments are served and paid for by the State organization. Only members in good standing are permitted to attend these state meetings.

Another fishing trip was discussed, but final action was tabled as weather conditions in November may not be conducive to fishing.

The outstanding event of the season has been tentatively set for the first or second week of December. It will be a buffet-dinner dance to which all members of the Greenbelt and Silver Spring Chapters and their wives will be invited as guests of the local chapter. Van Camp's orchestra will furnish the music for dancing.

Members and prospective members wishing further details should contact Van at 4102 for the fishing trip and dinner-dance, with "Red" Weber, 2981, supplying information on the State Meeting.

Voice Classes Perform

The "Tune In A Basket" classes of Mrs. Lydalu Palmer's voice studios presented their end-of-the-season recital on Sunday at 1-D Eastway. The first number was "Salute To The Flag" with Sandor Johnson, Roger Horton, and Allan LaFlamme. The program continued with solos by Roger Horton, Dorothy Moran, Allan LaFlamme, Sandor Johnson, Joyce Ott, David Goldfaden, Donna Jean Evans, and Robert Ireland.

Meeting Planned by Sodality

A Mother and Daughter meeting is planned for the Wednesday, October 4, Sodality meeting, according to the president, Mrs. Margaret Baldwin. All 14- to 17-year-olds who are interested in becoming members of the teen-age Sodality are invited to come to the meeting, which will take place at 8:30 p.m. in St. Hugh's parish hall.

Rosenzweig Added To Board Of GCS

Former board member Ben Rosenzweig was elected at the GCS board of directors' meeting Friday, September 22, to take the place of John Littleton, whose resignation was read the same evening.

The food store will sell a new triple-rich bread, made from unbleached flour containing soy protein wheat germ which was perfected at Cornell University and found to be more healthful and superior in maintaining freshness to other flours used by bakers. This bread, labeled as "Smith's Bread," will be sold for a trial period and if sales warrant it, GCS will package it under the co-op label.

Members Down, Stock Up

Bob Mitchell, chairman of the membership committee, announced a "net decrease in membership of 19 in the period from July 29 to September 2, but a capital stock increase of almost $3,000, bringing the total capital stock to $261,995.34."

George Davidsen, in his report of the meeting of the Potomac Federation board, recommended that GCS purchase a directory of co-ops soon to be released by this group. Walter Volckhausen, Federation secretary, said he also felt this would be a wise purchase from the point of view of selling the "co-op idea" in the new store area. No action was taken on this matter.

Kagawa Coming to D. C.

Dr. Toyohiko Kagawa, foremost leader of cooperatives in Japan, will speak at two meetings in Washington on October 24, it was announced by Eleanor Ritchie, education chairman, who suggested that "car pools be organized in Greenbelt to transport people interested in hearing him." GCS will be represented by three board members, and possibly general manager Sam Ashelman, at the Cooperative League Congress to be held in Chicago, October 11-13. Board President Walter Bierwagen was elected to appoint two other delegates, in addition to himself. A plan to aid in the development of cooperatives for the next four years is expected to be formulated at this Convention.

The first of a series of education meetings in the New Hampshire store area will be held tonight in the Grace Methodist Church in Takoma Park, with Hans Thunell as guest speaker.

Drugstore Discussion

The meeting was turned over to a discussion of the drugstore operation. The small inventory of cosmetics was questioned, and the opinion was expressed that cosmetic sales were low and sold primarily as gift items "because the women of Greenbelt do not use cosmetics to the same extent as women in large cities do." Where prices on prescriptions are found to be higher than other stores, an attempt is made to bring them into line. Jack Borenstein, pharmacist, expressed willingness to examine any charge of out-of-line prices if they are brought to his attention. Some patent medicines must be sold higher in Greenbelt, due to the Fair Trade Law which exists in Maryland and not in the district.

Since the elimination of cooked meals at the fountain, the operating loss has stopped, with a resulting increase in earnings of $1,348 in the first 8 months of 1950 as compared to a loss of $1,686 during the same period last year. The fountain, managed by Robert Garen, always gets a good report from the health inspector, but its untidy appearance is due to the worn equipment which has been in use since the store opened. Any improvement "would be constituted as setting up

Take A Bow - And A Ticket

The Cooperator pays tribute to the Youth Center this week for its fine accomplishments in the past, and for its promising future. All residents of our city have a profound interest in the future of this organization, which they can express by support of the raffle and dance taking place Saturday night at the Community Building. Just a few days remain for the purchase of raffle tickets and a chance to win an automobile or one of the many wonderful prizes. Proceeds from the tickets will go towards filling the needs of the Youth Center in the coming year; many of these needs are extremely important. A complete program of activities, new equipment, enlarged facilities are among the necessities, and it takes money to get them.

There is no need to emphasize the importance of the Youth Center to our community. Other cities are well aware of the consequences of juvenile delinquency. We have been fortunate in having alert city councils that have originated, supported and assisted the Youth Center activity. The Recreation Department and the Advisory Board have provided extraordinary services. We citizens now have the opportunity to display our gratitude and encouragement by giving concrete support to the raffle-dance fund raising affair.

When the teen-ager knocks on your door Friday buy your tickets. Demonstrate your interest in his welfare!

City Manager Attends Lectures On Defense

Charles T. McDonald, Greenbelt city manager and local Director of Civilian Defense, is attending a series of lectures dealing with the medical education for atomic defense. There are three lectures in the series, sponsored by the Medical Society of the District of Columbia, in cooperation with the Office of the Surgeon General.

An invitation has been extended to Mr. McDonald by Montgomery County Manager Irwin J. McNair to attend a meeting of county managers from the eastern coast and this area at Rockville. This group of county managers, which is a section of the International City Managers Association, is meeting to discuss organization of the counties for civil defense.

Mayor Elizabeth Harrington is out of town for a week, during which time Frank Lastner will act as mayor-pro-tem.

Personal Touch

Doris Asbell Mednick, 3518

Mr. and Mrs. C. Rex Bly and daughter Martha, 5-H Gardenway, returned home last week after spending three and a half weeks in Macomb, Illinois visiting with Mr. Bly's home folks. They visited Lincoln's home at Salem Park, Illinois, where he lived as a young man.

Donald Freaner, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Freaner, 73-S Ridge, was married to Doris Friend of Beltsville last week in the Community Church. Donald works at the center food store as a checker. Doris was dressed in navy blue. Her bridesmaid was Helen Gibson (Don's sister) and best man was Martin Gibson, Don's brother-in-law.

The Gilbert E. Lewises of 18-B Ridge have been taking his brother and wife (who are visiting them from Lawrence, Massachusetts) on a series of trips to Washington, Mt. Vernon, Skyline Drive and other interesting places in this locality. That's all right, folks, when the Lewises were visiting the brother and sister-in-law in Lawrence this summer they did the same for them.

Mrs. Nell Arrington of 21-K Ridge entertained the Community Church choir last week at the first business meeting of the year. Mrs. Sig Leifur was elected president and Miss Ruth Rhodes, secretary-treasurer.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cormack, 6-B Ridge, have returned from their trip to Chicago and Milwaukee. They visited Greenhills in Ohio and Greendale in Wisconsin, which are "sisters" to Greenbelt, but Mrs. Cormack said she'd prefer Greenbelt to either one of them. She was a guest on Tommy Bartlett's "Welcome Traveler" radio program and met Weegee, the famous free-lance New York photographer.

Van Camp Elected Treasurer Of The Izaak Walton League

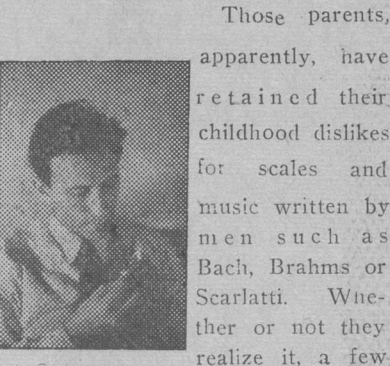

At a special meeting last week the Greenbelt Izaak Walton League accepted the resignation of Paul Lung as treasurer and elected C. J. Van Camp to fill the remainder of his term. In addition to being a charter member, Paul has been one of the mainstays of the local organization since its inception in 1947. His official duties included two years as treasurer of the Maryland Division of the League. His resignation was due to a transfer to a better position in Florida.

Paul's quiet, uncomplaining nature endeared him to all those with whom he came in contact. He was never known to criticize or find fault with anyone and was always willing to help when called upon for assistance. He will be missed by all those who knew him.

TOWER 9669

By Bill Mirabella
How often have you heard some parent remark to his or her child, "Must you practice those awful scales!" or "Why must your teacher give you Bach, I never could stand his music!"

Those parents, apparently, have retained their childhood dislikes for scales and music written by men such as Bach, Brahms or Scarlatti. Whether or not they realize it, a few Mirabella remarks such as those quoted above are, all too often, sufficient to spike a child's interest in the more serious and important aspects of music.

Remarks of that kind build up resistance to the teacher's attempts to prepare the groundwork necessary for the child's sound musical development.

Such parents would never deliberately influence their children against eating spinach. Nevertheless, they do the same thing, musically that is, without the slightest qualm of conscience. Parents generally seem to be aware of their responsibilities to, and their influence upon their children. But this does not seem to carry over to music. It would be better for them to carefully weigh their statements, before utterance, so as not to undo the work of some teacher for which they are paying.

With the joint approval of Greenbelt Post No. 136, and the Post Home, Inc., a program is under way to effect some constructive changes in both the Post Home itself, and the policy relating to its operation.

Painting - The exterior of the Post Home has just received a new face; the entire structure was repainted which has improved the appearance of the building a great deal.

Grading - A contract was just entered into between the Post Home, Inc., and the Jones Construction Company, Inc., to grade and reconstruct the driveway and entrance to the Post Home. Work will commence as soon as the weather will permit.

Post closed to membership - Effective October 15, 1950, the Post Home of Greenbelt Post No. 136 will be closed except to paid-up members only. Local Gunners Second In State Rifle Match

The State Smallbore Rifle Championship, competed for during the Third Annual Harvest Tournament conducted by the Greenbelt Gun Club on the local range last weekend, was won by the Cumberland team. This western Maryland quartet edged the Greenbelters out of the title by 6 points (1593 to 1587).

The state title competition was one phase of the tournament's team match (one of the seven matches presented Saturday and Sunday). In all, 12 teams of 4 men each fired in this part of the program, trying for the trophy offered by Greenbelt Consumer Services. The National Capital Club won this prize.

Arthur Cook (Olympic champ and former national titleholder) won the Kirwan Sunoco Trophy for the aggregate of all six individual matches. His 2-day total was 2381 out of 2400. Master Sgt. R. Hanson, University of Maryland, took second place. Scores in most matches were rather low on account of windy shooting conditions. Darkness and the smoke cover from Canada nearly broke up the last event Sunday evening.

More than 80 shooters attended the program. Individual awards valued at about $130 were in competition. Much credit for helping make the affair a success is due three young men who served on the target detail: Ralph Nelson, Jack Beckham, and Bruce Colvin. The latter not only worked hard, but fired in several matches and won a couple of Junior Class prizes.

Final outdoor event of this season for the Greenbelt Gun Club will be its annual picnic and club championship rifle and pistol matches to be held this Sunday at the range, beginning at 10 a.m.

The adult education program sponsored by the Prince Georges County Board of Education will get under way with its first classes next Tuesday night, October 3, at the Greenbelt high school, according to adult education director Mary Jane Kinzer. Manual training, art and sewing classes will be held at 7:30 on Tuesday and Thursday nights.

Shorthand will be given at the Center school on Monday and Wednesday nights at 7:30, in room 221. Carl Oliver, who has taught shorthand for a number of years, will teach again this year.

Chorus will meet at 8:30 p.m. at the Center school on Monday nights, under Gordon Finlay.

Additional classes will be offered if interest in other subjects is shown. Some of the possibilities are public speaking, Spanish and interior decorating. People who are interested may call Mrs. Kinzer at the PHA office, Greenbelt 2031, between 8:30 a.m. and 5 p.m.
